We want to clarify that Funded Pro Trader does not engage in regulated activities. Our exclusive activities consist of Proprietary Trading and Professional Training. As a result, we are not required to be authorized by regulatory authorities. Traders do not have direct access to company capital and trade with virtual funds, so they do not need a money manager's license. Please note that the information provided on this site is intended solely for study purposes related to trading on financial markets and should not be considered as specific investment recommendations, business recommendations, investment opportunity analyses, or similar general recommendations regarding the trading of investment instruments. Trading in financial markets is a high-risk activity, and it is advised not to risk more than one can afford to lose.

Regarding funded accounts, it is important to understand their limitations. Hypothetical or simulated performance results have certain limitations and do not represent actual trading. Simulated trading programs are designed with the benefit of hindsight and may not accurately reflect actual trading results. No representation is being made that any account will or is likely to achieve profits or losses similar to those shown. FPT funded accounts are not live trading accounts but fully simulated accounts utilizing real market quotes. The featured traders are representative only, and their past performance in a simulated environment does not guarantee current or future performance. Additionally, trading financial instruments involves a substantial risk of loss and may not be suitable for all investors. The use or reliance on any information contained on the Site is solely at your own risk.
